

Scilex Holding Company a majority-owned subsidiary of Sorrento Therapeutics, Inc., Appoints Highly Accomplished Life Science Executive, Elizabeth Czerepak, as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer (CFO) and Chief Business Officer (CBO)

April 28, 2022 12:00 PM EDT

SAN DIEGO, CA AND PALO ALTO, CA. April 28, 2022 /Newswire/ — Scilex Holding Company (“Scilex”), a nearly 100% (or over 99.9%) majority-owned subsidiary of Sorrento Therapeutics, Inc. (Nasdaq: SRNE, “Sorrento”), who is a commercial biopharmaceutical company focused on developing and commercializing non-opioid therapies for patients with acute and chronic pain, announced that Elizabeth Czerepak will join the company as Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and Chief Business Officer, effective May 18, 2022. Ms. Czerepak will be a member of the Scilex and Sorrento Executive Leadership Teams, reporting to Scilex’s Chief Executive Officer and President, Jaisim Shah, and Sorrento’s Chief Executive Officer, Henry Ji, overseeing all aspects of Scilex and Sorrento’s financial management, corporate communications and corporate and business development areas.

Ms. Czerepak has more than 35 years of finance and operational expertise across pharmaceuticals, biotechnology and venture capital. Ms. Czerepak is currently EVP and Chief Financial Officer of BeyondSpring Inc., a global biopharmaceutical company focused on developing innovative immunology cancer therapies. Prior to that, she served as Chief Financial Officer and Chief Business Officer for Genevant Sciences, a lipid nanoparticle delivery company, and as chief financial officer for several other biotech companies. Ms. Czerepak has 10 years of venture capital investment experience as a former Managing Director at Bear Stearns and JPMorgan, and was Founding General Partner of Bear Stearns Health Innovations L.P.

Ms. Czerepak began her career with 18 years in big pharma in senior leadership positions serving on finance, strategic planning, business development and product launch teams. She spearheaded the global partner search for D2E7 (Humira®), which culminated in BASF Pharma’s sale to Abbott for $6.9 billion. She played a key role in Roche’s acquisition of Syntex for $5.4 billion. Over the years, she has also been instrumental in raising hundreds of millions of dollars for biotech companies by leading investments, as well as through her contributions as a CFO and Board member.

“Our Company’s continued strength is essential to Scilex’s ability to deliver on our purpose and to create long-term value for all our stakeholders,” said Dr. Henry Ji, Executive Chairman of Scilex and Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Sorrento Therapeutics. “Elizabeth brings with her deep financial and business experience, a track record of achievement and true insight into today’s healthcare business. For these reasons, she is the perfect leader to take the helm of our talented finance, business and corporate development organization and deliver a comprehensive strategic financial vision that will help drive Scilex’s future growth and success.”

“We are living in a time of unprecedented unmet medical need in the area of acute and chronic pain, and Scilex is unparalleled in its ambition to make a difference in improving the lives of millions of pain patients. For me, there could be no opportunity more rewarding than leveraging my years of finance and business experience to play a role in helping deliver on this aspiration, working alongside a high-performing team that has been built for growth and for enhancing shareholder returns. I look forward to serving Scilex with enthusiasm and great commitment. I am excited about Scilex’s bright future in the field of acute and chronic pain,” said Elizabeth Czerepak.

We are pleased to welcome Elizabeth, a highly regarded leader in our industry, who is very familiar to Scilex and the executive team,” said Jaisim Shah, President and CEO of Scilex. “She is joining Scilex at an exciting juncture as we continue to fulfill our vision to be the leading pain management company delivering novel opioid sparing and non-addictive treatments for safe and durable relief of multiple acute and chronic pain conditions. The addition of Elizabeth complements our executive team skills and experiences, and we are confident she will provide valuable perspectives as we enhance value to our stockholders. We look forward to her contributions and are excited she is part of Scilex’s leadership team.”

Scilex Holding Company and Vickers Vantage Corp. I (Nasdaq: VCKA) (“VCKA”), a special purpose acquisition company sponsored by Vickers Venture Fund VI Pte Ltd and Vickers Venture Fund VI (Plan) Pte Ltd, entered into a definitive business combination agreement (“BCA”) on March 17, 2022. Upon the closing of the transaction, the combined company (the “Combined Company”) will be renamed Scilex Holding Company, and its common stock is expected to be listed on Nasdaq under the ticker symbol “SCLX”. The boards of directors of each of VCKA, Scilex and Sorrento have unanimously approved the proposed transaction. The closing of the transaction, which is expected to occur by the third quarter of 2022, is subject to the approval of VCKA’s shareholders and the satisfaction or waiver of certain other customary closing conditions.

About Scilex Holding Company

Scilex Holding Company, a nearly 100% (or over 99.9%) majority-owned subsidiary of Sorrento Therapeutics, Inc., is dedicated to the development and commercialization of non-opioid pain management products for treatment of acute and chronic pain. Scilex is uncompromising in its focus to become the global pain management leader committed to social, environmental, economic, and ethical principles to responsibly develop pharmaceutical products to maximize quality of life. Highly positive results from the Phase III Pivotal Trial C.L.E.A.R Program for SEMDEXA™, its novel, non-opioid product for the treatment of lumbosacral radicular pain (sciatica), were announced in March 2022. Scilex targets indications with high unmet needs and large market opportunities with non-opioid therapies for the treatment of patients with moderate to severe pain. Scilex launched its first commercial product in October 2018 and is developing its late-stage pipeline, which includes a pivotal Phase 3 candidate and one Phase 2 and one Phase 1 candidate. Its commercial product, ZTlido® (lidocaine topical system) 1.8%, or ZTlido®, is a prescription lidocaine topical product approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration for the relief of pain associated with postherpetic neuralgia, which is a form of post-shingles nerve pain. Scilex’s three product candidates are SP-102 (injectable dexamethasone sodium phosphate viscous gel product containing 10 mg dexamethasone), or SEMDEXA™, a Phase 3, novel, viscous gel formulation of a widely used corticosteroid for epidural injections to treat lumbosacral radicular pain, or sciatica, with FDA Fast Track status; SP-103 (lidocaine topical system) 5.4%, a Phase 2, triple-strength formulation of ZTlido®, for the treatment of low back pain; and SP-104, 4.5 mg Delayed Burst Release Low Dose Naltrexone Hydrochloride (DBR-LDN) Capsule, for the treatment of chronic pain, fibromyalgia in multiple Phase 1 programs expected to be initiated this year. For further information regarding the SP-102 Phase 3 efficacy trial, see NCT identifier NCT03372161 – Corticosteroid Lumbar Epidural Analgesia for Radiculopathy – Full Text View – ClinicalTrials.gov.

About Sorrento Therapeutics, Inc.

Sorrento is a clinical and commercial stage biopharmaceutical company developing new therapies to treat cancer, pain (non-opioid treatments), autoimmune disease and COVID-19. Sorrento's multimodal, multipronged approach to fighting cancer is made possible by its extensive immunology platforms, including key assets such as fully human antibodies ("G-MAB™ library"), immuno-cellular therapies ("DAR-T™"), antibody-drug conjugates ("ADCs"), and oncolytic virus ("Seprehvec™"). Sorrento is also developing potential antiviral therapies and vaccines against coronaviruses, including Abivertinib, COVI-AMG™, COVISHIELD™, COVI-MSC™ and COVIDROPS™; and diagnostic test solutions, including COVITRACK™ and COVIMARK™.

Sorrento's commitment to life-enhancing therapies for patients is also demonstrated by our effort to advance a first-in-class (TRPV1 agonist) non-opioid pain management small molecule, resiniferatoxin ("RTX"), and SP-102 (10 mg, dexamethasone sodium phosphate viscous gel) (SEMDEXA™), a novel, viscous gel formulation of a widely used corticosteroid for epidural injections to treat lumbosacral radicular pain, or sciatica, and to commercialize ZTlido® (lidocaine topical system) 1.8% for the treatment of postherpetic neuralgia (PHN). RTX has been cleared for a Phase II trial for intractable pain associated with cancer and a Phase II trial in osteoarthritis patients. Positive final results from the Phase III Pivotal Trial C.L.E.A.R. Program for SEMDEXA™, its novel, non-opioid product for the treatment of lumbosacral radicular pain (sciatica), were announced in March 2022. ZTlido® was approved by the FDA on February 28, 2018.
